Parent Covenant

In Holy Baptism you made a sacred promise to God on behalf of your child to:

Remember them in prayers, put them in mind of their baptism, give your counsel and aid that they be brought up in the true knowledge and worship of God and be taught the 10 Commandments, the Creed, and the Lord's Prayer; and that, as they grow in years, you place in their hands the Holy Scriptures, bring them to the services of God's house, and provide for their further instruction in the Christian faith, that they come to the sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood and thus, abiding in their baptismal grace and in communion with the Church, they may grow up to lead a godly life to the praise and honor of Jesus Christ.

Now they're in junior high! Will you:

- Continue in the promise you made to God when you first held your child in your arms?
- Continue to set a positive example and stress the importance of worship and God's Word by regular church attendance AND regular confirmation attendance?
- Support, pray for, and communicate on a regular basis with the "guide" of your student's small group?
- Stress the importance of studying God's Word by taking time and going over the weekly assignments and making the most of every opportunity to discuss God's Word?
- Take time from your busy schedules, and make time regularly to check in with your child, to share highs and lows, share and discuss God's Word, pray for one another, and forgive one another that you may both grow in your relationship with one another and in your relationship with your Savior, Jesus Christ?

I will do so with the help of God.

Write these commandments that I've given you today on your hearts.

*Get them inside of you and then get them
inside your children.*

*Talk about them wherever you are,
sitting at home or walking in the street;*

Talk about them from the time you get up in the morning to when you fall into bed at night.

Tie them on your hands and foreheads as a reminder;

inscribe them on the doorposts of your homes and on your city gates.
